

Seeking Black Mothers for Dissertation Pilot Study Participation

Contact: hello@ktwardconsulting.com | Text: (415) 690-9892

I am conducting a pilot study to understand how Black mothers cultivate care practices to navigate and resist the embodied impacts of racial stress. Your voice matters and will help shape research on maternal wellness and resilience.

Interview Dates	September 21–30, 2025
Honorarium	A small stipend is provided as appreciation for your time.
Status	IRB Approved

Who Can Participate?

- Black mothers (25+) living in the United States.
- Willing to complete a 45–60 minute interview (Zoom or phone).

What to Expect

- One-on-one conversation focused on your experiences and care practices.
- Conducted via a secure video platform or by phone.
- Your privacy and confidentiality will be protected.

Ready to connect? Email hello@ktwardconsulting.com or text (415) 690-9892 with the message “Interested in pilot study.”
